Investment Objective

To provide long-term capital growth, with a secondary focus on modest income, by investing primarily in other RBC Funds, investing in equity mutual funds for higher growth potential and fixed-income mutual funds for diversification and the potential to generate income. The portfolio maintains a balance of investments across several asset classes.

Quarterly Commentary as at June 30, 2010

In the second quarter, the RBC Select Balanced Portfolio declined 4.2%, compared to 3.2% loss for its benchmark.

Global equity markets peaked early in the second quarter and were under pressure for the balance of it. Chief concerns centered on the impact that both government debt levels, as well as belt-tightening, which numerous countries may need to implement as stimulus is withdrawn from the markets and economies, will have on global growth.

The Canadian equity market was one of the better-performing markets across the globe, with precious metals shares soaring as gold was sought as a safe haven. The S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index was down 5.5%, while both the S&P500 Total Return Index and the MSCI EAFE Total Return Index fell 11% in their local currencies. An underweight position in bonds hampered the Portfolio's relative underperformance compared to its benchmark.

Fixed-income yields moved lower in the second quarter, with global bonds returning 3%. This positive return was a function of a global flight to safety into higher-quality government bonds, as well as expectations for rate increases being placed on hold.

Our roadmap remains the same, as it anticipated that a typical mid-cycle correction was likely to ensue as we moved through 2010. Having already witnessed a global 15-20% downdraft, a decent portion of the total equity market declines has been seen and some hedges have been covered. Time elements suggest that there still remains a congestion period in the coming months, setting the stage for a rally later this year.

Quartile rankings are determined by Morningstar Research Inc., an independent research firm. Quartile rankings are comparisons of the performance of a fund to other funds in a particular category and are subject to change monthly. The quartiles divide the data into four equal segments expressed in terms of rank (1, 2, 3 or 4). This is the Morningstar quartile ranking of Series A units of the Fund as of July 31, 2010.

Morningstar ratings are overall ratings reflecting risk adjusted performance as of July 31, 2010. The ratings are subject to change every month. The ratings are calculated for funds with a minimum of 3 years of performance, calculated from the funds' 1 and 3 year average annual returns measured against a 91-day Treasury Bill return with appropriate fee adjustments. The top 10% of the funds in a category receive 5 stars (high); if the funds fall in the next 22.5%, they receive 4 stars (above average); a place in the middle 35% earns a fund 3 stars (neutral or average); those in the next 22.5% receive 2 stars (below average); and the lowest 10% get 1 star (low). Ratings are just one factor to consider when investing. For more information, please see www.morningstar.ca.
