Quarterly Commentary as at September 30, 2017

The PH&N Global Equity Fund outperformed the Fund's benchmark in the third quarter due to stock selection.

Kite Pharma Inc. was PH&N Global Equity Fund's largest contributor. It was the subject of a takeover offer from Gilead Sciences Inc. at a 29% premium in an all-cash offer. CF Industries Holdings Inc., a U.S. producer of nitrogen fertilizer, was also positive for returns, rallying strongly as prices for urea (the key component in its product) have risen by over 60% since the end of June. Nidec Corp., a Japanese manufacturer of precision motors, reported strong numbers in the first quarter and the company is poised to benefit from the continued electrification of cars and developments in robotic applications.

U.K.-listed global hotel franchise operator, Intercontinental Hotels Group PLC, was the largest detractor for the Fund based on slightly weaker first half 2017 results. U.S. financial trading platform, MarketAxess Holdings Inc., also fell slightly after summer trading volume statistics missed expectations and Irish-listed gaming company, Paddy Power, suffered as it continues to integrate its recent acquisition, Betfair.

All major markets posted strong returns in their respective local currencies. The U.S. led the way, driven by strong macro and company fundamentals, while the U.K. lagged amid continued uncertainty around Brexit. Despite a late-quarter rally on the back of the U.S. Federal Reserve's intentions to reduce its balance sheet and tighten rates, the U.S. dollar continued to weaken.

As always, the RBC Global Equity team remains committed to the discovery of companies that we deem to be future success stories. We are constantly searching for compelling long-term opportunities at the right valuations while avoiding businesses that are overvalued or optically cheap but fundamentally flawed.
