

PH&N Currency-Hedged U.S. Equity Fund

Investment Objective

The fundamental investment objective of the Fund is to provide significant long-term capital growth primarily through exposure to a well-diversified portfolio of quality U.S. common stocks, while minimizing currency risk. To achieve these objectives, the Fund will invest primarily in units of other funds managed by Phillips, Hager & North. Fundamental investment objectives may only be changed with the approval of a majority of unitholders at a meeting called for that purpose. However, we may change the Fund's investment strategies at our discretion.

Quarterly Commentary as at March 31, 2018

Uncertainty returned to financial markets in early 2018 following a long period of strong returns and minimal volatility that lasted for most of the 2017. The reversal started with strong U.S. wage-growth data, which led to concerns that higher inflation may force the U.S. Federal Reserve to increase interest rates at a faster pace than previously anticipated. With markets beginning to find their feet in the latter stages of February, renewed concerns over U.S. trade protectionism resulted in additional volatility, starting with U.S. tariffs on steel and aluminum and continuing with Chinese threats in response.

Security selection and asset allocation contributed this quarter, led by a few strong overweight positions. PVH Corp. reported strong fiscal 2017 results with robust strength in its Calvin Klein and Tommy Hilfiger brands. Over the quarter, we were also overweight in Amazon.com Inc., which had great fourth quarter 2017 results. Amazon continues to grow its market share and expand its offerings, boosting margins and expanding reach. Conversely, Dollar Tree Inc. was a negative performer this quarter, mainly because it shared intentions to invest more tax windfall into the business rather than distribute it to shareholders. Nevertheless, the Fund's portfolio managers are positive on the stock going forward.

The economic backdrop remains positive by post-crisis standards as many macroeconomic indicators monitored by the portfolio managers show reasons to remain positive. While key risks of an aging business cycle, rising interest rates and protectionism persist, upside potential remains from structural reforms in Japan and U.S. fiscal stimulus. On balance, the portfolio managers expect the positives to outweigh the negatives, further driving potential in the stock market.

Quartile rankings are determined by Morningstar Research Inc., an independent research firm, based on categories maintained by the Canadian Investment Funds Standards Committee (CIFSC). Quartile rankings are comparisons of the performance of a fund to other funds in a particular category and are subject to change monthly. The quartiles divide the data into four equal segments expressed in terms of rank (1, 2, 3 or 4). This is the Morningstar quartile ranking of Series A and F units of the Fund as of March 31, 2018.
