Quarterly Commentary as at December 31, 2011

In the 4th quarter, the RBC Select Choices Aggressive Growth Portfolio (Series A) posted a return of 4.8% versus 4.6% for its benchmark.

All holdings in the Fund's Canadian equity portion had a positive impact on performance, led by the CI Harbour Fund. Among U.S. investment funds in the portfolio, the RBC O'Shaughnessy U.S. Growth Fund recorded the biggest gain and with the RBC O'Shaughnessy U.S. Value Fund, had the biggest positive effect on performance.

The portfolio's international segment performed worse than the North American portion. The CI Global Small Companies Fund recorded a modest gain, while the RBC O'Shaughnessy International Equity Fund finished down and had a negative effect on performance.

Our models indicate that the U.S. is not in a recession, but there is a risk that it could fall into one next year. While Canada appears relatively healthy, it would be unusual for the economy to significantly decouple from the U.S. Therefore, we forecast a downshift in Canadian economic growth for 2012. Although growth will remain weak, depressed stock-market valuations provide upside potential, and as a result we remain modestly overweight equities.

Quartile rankings are determined by Morningstar Research Inc., an independent research firm. Quartile rankings are comparisons of the performance of a fund to other funds in a particular category and are subject to change monthly. The quartiles divide the data into four equal segments expressed in terms of rank (1, 2, 3 or 4). This is the Morningstar quartile ranking of Series A units of the Fund as of December 31, 2011.

Morningstar ratings are overall ratings reflecting risk adjusted performance as December 31, 2011. The ratings are subject to change every month. The ratings are calculated for funds with a minimum of 3 years of performance, calculated from the funds' 1 and 3 year average annual returns measured against a 91-day Treasury Bill return with appropriate fee adjustments. The top 10% of the funds in a category receive 5 stars (high); if the funds fall in the next 22.5%, they receive 4 stars (above average); a place in the middle 35% earns a fund 3 stars (neutral or average); those in the next 22.5% receive 2 stars (below average); and the lowest 10% get 1 star (low). Ratings are just one factor to consider when investing. For more information, please see www.morningstar.ca.
