MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks to provide long-term capital growth by investing in equity securities of Canadian and/or U.S. companies priced below their true value and offering long-term opportunities for growth.

To achieve its investment objective, the Fund invests most of its assets in the RBC North American Value Fund (the “underlying fund”). The underlying fund identifies quality companies that are undervalued based on criteria such as assets, earnings and cash flow. The approach provides for a lower level of volatility than a portfolio of growth companies. The underlying fund may also invest in income trusts.

Risk

There were no significant changes to the investment objective and strategies that affected the Fund’s overall level of risk during the reporting period. The risks of investing in the Fund and the suitability of the Fund for investors remain as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund’s net asset value rose to $176 million as of March 31, 2021, from $143 million as of March 31, 2020. The increase was due to investment returns, partially offset by net redemptions.

Over the past year, the Fund’s Series A shares gained 43.3%, outperforming the 39.6% rise in the S&P 500 Total Return Index in Canadian dollars and underperforming the 44.2% rise in the S&P/TSX Capped Composite Total Return Index. The Fund’s return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, while the benchmark and broad-based index returns do not include any costs of investing. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

Canadian and U.S. stocks rallied to record levels during the period, coming back from the pandemic-induced plunge of early 2020. The stock resurgence was due, at least initially, to substantial fiscal stimulus and interest-rate cuts that kept financial markets afloat. The S&P 500 Index then rose to all-time highs in September on better-than-expected economic growth, and the index continued to surge in November following the approval of two vaccines to combat COVID-19. The S&P/TSX Composite Index reached its highest point in the first quarter of 2021, driven by the stocks of banks and commodity producers on optimism that the economic recovery was accelerating.

The Fund’s relative performance was aided by the Energy and Materials sectors. An overweight in Interfor, a forestry-products company, made the largest contribution to returns as lumber prices rose to records fuelled by low mortgage rates and a surge in home renovations. An underweight allocation to Barrick Gold also helped performance, as a rise in inflation-adjusted yields late in the period made gold, which offers no income, less attractive to investors.

Security selection and an underweight in the Information Technology sector had a negative impact on the Fund’s relative returns. The absence of Shopify in the portfolio held back performance, as the website designer benefited from the acceleration of e-commerce. The stock’s high valuation makes the shares unsuitable for the Fund.

Recent Developments

The stock rebound over the past 12 months has been one of the strongest equity-market comebacks on record, and it seems prudent to consider the possibility that returns will not be as attractive in the near term. However, unprecedented central-bank and fiscal stimulus combined with historically high savings and pent-up demand suggest it’s too early for investors to get defensive, in the view of the portfolio manager, and the portfolio manager believes that equity valuations are likely to remain high until macroeconomic risks start to creep back. Examples of these risks include a significant rise in interest rates and the spread of COVID-19 variants.

Effective February 28, 2021, Ms. Catherine J. Kloepper resigned as Vice Chair of the Independent Review Committee (the “IRC”). Effective March 22, 2021, Mr. Paul K. Bates was appointed as Vice Chair of the IRC. Effective April 1, 2021, Ms. Brenda Eaton was appointed as a member of the IRC.

Effective June 26, 2020, Advisor Series mutual fund shares were capped and were re-designated as Series A mutual fund shares effective August 4, 2020.

Related-Party Transactions

RBC GAM is responsible for the Fund’s day-to-day operations, provides investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund and appoints distributors for the Fund. RBC GAM is paid a management fee by the Fund as compensation for its services. The Fund pays a fixed administration fee to RBC GAM, which, in turn, pays certain operating expenses of the Fund. Both the management fee and fixed administration fee are calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of mutual fund shares of the Fund.

RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn fees and spreads in connection with various services provided to, or transactions with, the Fund, such as banking, brokerage, securities lending, foreign exchange and derivatives transactions. RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn a foreign exchange spread when shareholders switch between series of funds denominated in different currencies. The Fund also maintains bank accounts and overdraft provisions with Royal Bank for which Royal Bank may earn a fee. Affiliates of RBC GAM that provide services to the Fund in the course of their normal businesses are discussed below.

Distributors

RBC GAM, Royal Mutual Funds Inc., RBC Direct Investing Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc. and Phillips, Hager & North Investment Funds Ltd. are principal distributors of, or may distribute certain series of the mutual fund shares of, the Fund. Registrars

RBC GAM, RBC Investor Services Trust ("RBC IS") or Royal Bank (or a combination thereof) are the registrars of the Fund and keep records of who owns mutual fund shares of the Fund. The registrars earn a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Custodian

RBC IS is the custodian and holds the assets of the Fund. RBC IS earns a fee as the custodian, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Other Related-Party Transactions

Pursuant to applicable securities legislation, the Fund relied on the standing instructions from the Independent Review Committee with respect to one or more of the following transactions:

Related-Party Trading Activities

- (a) trades in securities of Royal Bank;

The applicable standing instructions require that Related-Party Trading Activities and Inter-Fund Trading be conducted in accordance with RBC GAM policy and that RBC GAM advise the Independent Review Committee of a material breach of any standing instruction. RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Related-Party Trading Activities (i) is made free from any influence of Royal Bank or its associates or affiliates and without taking into account any consideration relevant to Royal Bank or its affiliates or associates, (ii) represents the business judgment of the portfolio manager, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund, (iii) is in compliance with RBC GAM policies and procedures, and (iv) achieves a fair and reasonable result for the Fund. RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Inter-Fund Trading is in the best interests of each Fund.

¹ The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the direct expenses charged to the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of the expenses of underlying funds, if any, for the stated period, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. RBC GAM may, at its discretion and without notice to shareholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by RBC GAM of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by RBC GAM.

² The Fund's portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund.

³ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The trading expense ratio is not applicable to fixed-income transactions.

Effective March 1, 2020, the administration fees for Series A mutual fund shares were reduced to 0.08% from 0.13%. If the changes to the administration fees would have been in effect throughout the financial year ended March 31, 2020, the adjusted MER for each series of the Fund would be: Series A – 1.89%.

Effective June 30, 2016, the management fees for Series A mutual fund shares were reduced to 1.60% from 1.75%; for Series D mutual fund shares were reduced to 0.85% from 1.00%; and for Series F mutual fund shares were reduced to 0.60% from 0.75%. If the changes to the management fees would have been in effect throughout the financial year ended March 31, 2017, the adjusted MER for each series of the Fund would be: Series A – 1.94%, Series D – 1.05% and Series F – 0.79%.

PAST PERFORMANCE

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional shares of the Fund and would be lower if distributions were not reinvested. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, optional charges or income taxes payable that would have reduced returns or performance. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund may perform in the future. A fund with more than 10 years of performance history is only permitted to disclose the past 10 years.

Year-by-Year Returns (%)

The bar chart indicates the Fund's performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year.
