MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund is a strategic asset allocation fund, which focuses on providing income and the potential for moderate capital growth. The Fund maintains a balance of investments across several asset classes by investing in other funds managed by RBC GAM or an affiliate of RBC GAM (called the “underlying funds”).

The Fund’s target weightings for each asset class are 60% fixed income, 13% Canadian equities, 15% U.S. equities and 12% international equities. The actual allocation to each asset class will be no more than 15% above or below its target weighting for the fixed-income asset class, and no more than 10% above or below the target weighting for the equities asset classes.

Risk

There were no significant changes to the investment objective and strategies that affected the Fund’s overall level of risk during the reporting period. The risks of investing in the Fund and the suitability of the Fund for investors remain as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund’s net asset value rose to $36.1 billion as of December 31, 2023, from $36.0 billion at the end of 2022. The increase was due to investment returns, partially offset by net redemptions.

Over the past year, the Fund’s Series F units gained 9.8%, which underperformed the 10.7% rise in the benchmark. The broad-based index 1 rose 6.7% and the broad-based index 2 rose 11.8%. The Fund’s return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, while benchmark and broad-based index returns do not include any costs of investing. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

Economic growth in 2023 was faster than many economists had predicted at the beginning of the year, defying risks that included inflation exceeding central-bank targets, the highest borrowing costs in about 16 years and two wars on Europe’s doorstep. By the end of the period, growth and inflation had begun to slow, prompting investors to anticipate that central banks were moving closer to rolling back a portion of the rate hikes that had taken place since early 2022.

The Fund’s neutral position in equities and overweight position in fixed income had a positive impact on performance. Bonds recovered to post gains in 2023 as signs of economic slowdown, especially in Canada and Europe, pushed down longer-term yields and triggered the speculation about policy-rate cuts. The lack of a recession made the job of policymakers harder, with fears persisting that lower rates, if they occurred, would rekindle inflation. Canada’s 10-year benchmark yield ended the year down slightly at 3.11% but earlier touched 4.24%, the highest since July 2007. Canadian government bonds, with a return of just under 5%, outperformed U.S. fixed income, as the weaker Canadian economy pushed domestic yields down faster than yields on Treasuries. Eurozone government bonds outperformed those in North America and Japan, with the German bond market returning about 7% and Italy’s about 11%. Returns in the fixed-income segment of the portfolio were boosted by the RBC Bond Fund and the RBC Global Corporate Bond Fund.

A distinguishing characteristic of the U.S. stock-market rally was the small number of issues powering the advance. While the “Magnificent 7” – the seven largest stocks in the S&P 500 by market value – in some cases more than doubled, most stocks lagged the index’s returns significantly. The S&P 500 Index and some benchmarks in Europe reached near-record levels during the period. In emerging markets, China was a significant exception to what was otherwise an upbeat story. The removal of the country’s remaining pandemic restrictions was taken as a positive, but consumers and businesses did not spend and invest as had been expected. Overall, emerging markets underperformed developed markets. Returns were bolstered by the Phillips, Hager & North U.S. Multi-Style All-Cap Equity Fund and the RBC European Equity Fund.

Recent Developments

An economic slowdown appears to be underway, with businesses and consumers feeling the drag of higher interest rates and two years of exceptionally high inflation. Global trade is contracting, businesses are scaling back investments and the frenetic hiring of the past two years is on the wane, albeit gradually. The portfolio manager continues to look for a mild contraction in the U.S., Canada, the UK and the eurozone during the first half of 2024, although pathways to an economic soft landing are evident and the odds of such an outcome are improving as inflation moderates and the cost of borrowing declines.

Against this backdrop, the portfolio manager believes that central banks are likely to cut their benchmark interest rates at some point over the next year, setting up a more positive backdrop for bond returns. While the portfolio manager continues to expect stocks to outperform bonds over the longer term, the premium associated with holding equities relative to fixed income is perhaps not properly compensating investors for the risk of an economic downturn. Given the balance of risks and opportunities against both short-term and long-term investment horizons, the portfolio manager added to the Fund’s fixed-income allocation over the past quarter, boosting the bond weight above neutral for the first time in two decades.

Effective July 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A units were reduced to 1.53% from 1.58%.

Effective June 27, 2023, the Fund's risk rating changed from "low" to "low to medium."

Effective January 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A and Series T5 units were fixed at 1.58%.

Effective January 1, 2023, Suromitra Sanatani was appointed as Chair of the Independent Review Committee ("the IRC"). Effective February 1, 2023, Joanne Vézina was appointed as a member of the IRC. Effective March 1, 2023, Enrique Cuyegkeng was appointed as a member of the IRC.

² The Fund's portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not applicable to money market funds.

³ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs of the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of such costs of underlying funds expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The trading expense ratio is not applicable to fixed-income transactions.

Effective July 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A units were reduced to 1.53% from 1.58%. If the changes to the management fees would have been in effect throughout the financial year ended December 31, 2023, the adjusted MER for each series of the Fund would be: Series A – 1.78%.

Effective January 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A and Series T5 units were fixed at 1.58%. If the changes to the management fees would have been in effect throughout the financial year ended December 31, 2022, the adjusted MER for each series of the Fund would be: Series A – 1.84% and Series T5 – 1.84%.

* Effective January 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A and Series T5 units were fixed at 1.58%. Effective July 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A units were reduced to 1.53% from 1.58%. The Specified Percentage included the management fee, administration fee of 0.05%, taxes (other than the additional cost of the GST/HST), other fund costs and any fees and expenses of the underlying funds. The Specified Percentage for Series A and Series T5 units was 1.75%.

‡ Includes all costs related to management, trustee, investment advisory services, general administration and profit.

PAST PERFORMANCE

Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund may perform in the future. A fund with more than 10 years of performance history is only permitted to disclose the past 10 years.

Year-by-Year Returns (%)

The bar chart indicates the Fund's performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year.
