MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund pursues long-term capital growth by investing in equity securities of companies throughout the world that are involved directly or indirectly in the exploration, development, production or distribution of energy and energy-related products, or activities in the Energy sector.

To achieve its goal, the Fund invests in oil and gas companies with proven management, low-cost operations, strong balance sheets, high-quality reserves and consistent growth in the production of crude oil and natural gas. The Fund diversifies holdings among senior, intermediate and junior oil and gas producers and providers. The Fund may also invest in income trusts.

Risk

There were no significant changes to the investment objective and strategies that affected the Fund's overall level of risk during the reporting period. The risks of investing in the Fund and the suitability of the Fund for investors remain as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund's net asset value fell to $251 million as of December 31, 2023, from $287 million at the end of 2022. The decrease was due to net redemptions.

Over the past year, the Fund's Series F units lost 1.7%, which underperformed the 0.2% decline in the benchmark. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, while benchmark and broad-based index returns do not include any costs of investing. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

The price of benchmark Brent crude oil declined in 2023 as two years of interest-rate increases spurred concern that slowing economic growth would crimp demand for energy. The price of crude oil started the year at US$85 per barrel and climbed to US$96 in September before retreating. Crude oil ended the year at US$77 per barrel, or 10% below where it started the year.

The strength in crude-oil prices during the first nine months of the year was driven by OPEC and aligned producers ("OPEC+"), which agreed to extend and deepen production cuts in an effort to maintain a balance between global supply and demand. At the same time, however, central banks continued to raise interest rates in an effort to quell inflation, dampening economic growth. Softening demand for crude oil and record U.S. shale-oil production partially offset the impact of the OPEC+ reductions in output.

The Fund's relative returns were aided by positions in large European energy companies, including Shell and TotalEnergies, which benefited from their diversified energy portfolios and a growing global market for liquefied natural gas ("LNG"). The Fund's relative returns were also aided by a position in Cheniere Energy, another producer of LNG.

The Fund's returns were hindered by exposure to lithium exploration and extraction companies, including Critical Elements Lithium and Lithium Ionic, which were negatively affected by a decline in lithium prices. The Fund's returns were also limited by exposure to SolarEdge Technologies and Shoals Technologies Group, solar technology companies whose performance was hurt by weak demand for equipment installations.

Recent Developments

The willingness of OPEC countries to cut production in response to market conditions continues to help maintain a balance between global supply and demand, but an eventual return to earlier production levels could force crude-oil prices lower. Growing geopolitical conflict reinforces the importance of domestic resources in providing an uninterrupted energy supply, as scarcity of supply could drive commodity prices higher. The portfolio manager continues to favour energy producers that are committed to supporting economic development, reducing their environmental footprint and building a track record of transparency regarding environmental, social and governance standards.

Effective January 1, 2023, Suromitra Sanatani was appointed as Chair of the Independent Review Committee ("the IRC"). Effective February 1, 2023, Joanne Vézina was appointed as a member of the IRC. Effective March 1, 2023, Enrique Cuyekeng was appointed as a member of the IRC.

Related-Party Transactions

Manager, Trustee and Portfolio Manager

RBC GAM is an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Royal Bank of Canada ("Royal Bank") and is the manager, trustee and portfolio manager of the Fund. RBC GAM is responsible for the Fund's day-to-day operations, holds title to the Fund's property on behalf of its unitholders, provides investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund and appoints distributors for the Fund. RBC GAM is paid a management fee by the Fund as compensation for its services. The Fund pays a fixed administration fee to RBC GAM, which, in turn, pays certain operating expenses of the Fund. Both the management fee and fixed administration fee are calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of units of the Fund. RBC GAM, as trustee, earns a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn fees and spreads in connection with various services provided to, or transactions with, the Fund, such as banking, brokerage, securities lending, foreign exchange and derivatives transactions. RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn a foreign exchange spread when unitholders switch between series of funds denominated in different currencies. The Fund also maintains bank accounts and overdraft provisions with Royal Bank for which Royal Bank may earn a fee. Affiliates of RBC GAM that provide services to the Fund in the course of their normal businesses are discussed below.

Distributors

RBC GAM, Royal Mutual Funds Inc., RBC Direct Investing Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc. and Phillips, Hager & North Investment Funds Ltd. are principal distributors of, or may distribute certain series of units of, the Fund. Dealers may receive an ongoing commission based on the total value of their clients' investment in certain series of units of the Fund.

Registrars

RBC GAM, RBC Investor Services Trust ("RBC IS") or Royal Bank (or a combination thereof) are the registrars of the Fund and keep records of who owns units of the Fund. The registrars earn a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Custodian

RBC IS is the custodian and holds the assets of the Fund. RBC IS earns a fee as the custodian, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Securities Lending Agent

To the extent the Fund may engage in securities lending transactions, RBC IS may act as the Fund's securities lending agent. Any revenue earned on such securities lending is split between the Fund and the securities lending agent.

Brokers and Dealers

The Fund has established standard brokerage and dealing agreements at market rates with related parties. For the periods ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the related-party commissions were $4,000 (2022 – $22,000) or 2% (2022 – 5%) of the total transaction costs paid for this Fund.

The applicable standing instructions require that Related-Party Trading Activities and Inter-Fund Trading be conducted in accordance with RBC GAM policy and that RBC GAM advise the Independent Review Committee of a material breach of any standing instruction. RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Related-Party Trading Activities (i) is made free from any influence of Royal Bank or its associates or affiliates and without taking into account any consideration relevant to Royal Bank or its affiliates or associates, (ii) represents the business judgment of the portfolio manager, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund, (iii) is in compliance with RBC GAM policies and procedures, and (iv) achieves a fair and reasonable result for the Fund. RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Inter-Fund Trading is in the best interests of each Fund.

¹ The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the direct expenses charged to the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of the expenses of underlying funds, if any, for the stated period, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. RBC GAM may, at its discretion and without notice to unitholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by RBC GAM of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by RBC GAM.

² The Fund's portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not applicable to money market funds.

⁴ From March 2, 2023.

Effective March 1, 2020, the administration fees for Series A units were reduced to 0.15% from 0.20%. If the changes to the administration fees would have been in effect throughout the financial year ended December 31, 2020, the adjusted MER for each series of the Fund would be: Series A – 2.08%.

PAST PERFORMANCE

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the Fund and would be lower if distributions were not reinvested. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, optional charges or income taxes payable that would have reduced returns or performance. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund may perform in the future. A fund with more than 10 years of performance history is only permitted to disclose the past 10 years.

Year-by-Year Returns (%)

The bar chart indicates the Fund’s performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund’s performance has changed from year to year. The bar chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have grown or decreased by the end of the financial year.
