MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund is a strategic asset allocation fund, which focuses on providing income and the potential for moderate capital growth. The Fund maintains a balance of investments across several asset classes by investing in funds managed by RBC GAM or an affiliate of RBC GAM, as well as funds of other companies (collectively called the “underlying funds”).

The Fund’s target weightings for each asset class are 60% for fixed income, 13% for Canadian equities, 15% for U.S. equities and 12% for international equities. The actual allocation to each asset class will be no more than 15% above or below its target weighting for the fixed-income asset class, and no more than 10% above or below the target weighting for the equities asset classes.

Risk

There were no significant changes to the investment objective and strategies that affected the Fund’s overall level of risk during the reporting period. The risks of investing in the Fund and the suitability of the Fund for investors remain as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund’s net asset value fell to $118 million as of December 31, 2022, from $143 million at the end of 2021. The decrease was due to a combination of net redemptions and investment losses.

Over the past year, the Fund’s Series F units lost 10.3%, which underperformed the 10.2% decline in the benchmark. The broad-based index 1 fell 11.7% and the broad-based index 2 fell 5.8%. The Fund’s return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, while benchmark and broad-based index returns do not include any costs of investing. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

In January 2022, interest rates were near record lows and monetary stimulus was unprecedented, helping to lift U.S. stocks to record levels as much of the Western world tried to move on from the pandemic. But Russia’s invasion of Ukraine in February helped propel rapidly rising inflation to its highest level in four decades. The response to inflation – a rapid rise in global interest rates – led to the worst year for a U.S. balanced portfolio since 1937 and marked the first time since at least 1872 that both U.S. stocks and U.S. bonds had double-digit declines. Meanwhile, Chinese President Xi’s appointment to an unprecedented third term made him the country’s most powerful political leader since the 1970s, amplifying geopolitical tensions. Toward the end of 2022, China ended strict COVID lockdowns and mass testing, risking effects that could interfere with its economy and dent global economic growth.

The Fund’s overweight position in equities and underweight position in fixed income had a positive impact on performance. Canadian government bonds posted the worst returns since 1980, as central banks in North America and Europe aggressively raised short-term interest rates to fight unacceptably high inflation. In 2022, the Bank of Canada (the “BOC”) and the U.S. Federal Reserve (the “Fed”) increased short-term interest rates seven times featuring several jumbo-sized increases, and major central banks ended bond purchases that had helped hold down longer-term rates, and started selling bonds. By year-end, economic growth and inflation showed signs of falling, although the BOC and the Fed indicated that interest rates would remain elevated until inflation was clearly weakening back toward the 2% target. Government of Canada bonds outperformed their U.S. counterparts driven by investors’ views that the BOC would stop rate hikes earlier. While bonds performed poorly across the board due to the rise in interest rates, corporate and provincial bonds faced an additional hurdle – concern about an economic slowdown – while emerging-market debt was especially hard hit by tightening monetary conditions, the Russia-Ukraine war and China’s economic slowdown. Returns in the fixed-income segment of the portfolio were held back by the Russell Investments Fixed Income Pool and the RBC Bond Fund.

Surging inflation and interest rates and rising geopolitical tensions led to the worst year for the S&P 500 Index and global stocks since 2008, with many major equity indexes falling about 20%. Canada’s stock benchmark declined much less given its significant exposure to oil and metal prices, which held up well against a backdrop of limited supply. By the end of 2022, inflation appeared to have eased somewhat, prompting speculation that the Fed, the BOC and other developed-market central banks might be in a position to lessen the negative impact of any slowdown with a pause or even decreases in interest rates sometime in 2023. Returns were held back by the Renaissance International Equity Fund and the Invesco International Growth Class.

Recent Developments

Economic headwinds resulting largely from tighter monetary policy and reduced fiscal stimulus are creating uncertainty, and there is a wide range of potential outcomes for the economy and financial markets. That said, the 2022 bear market in both fixed income and equities has meaningfully improved return expectations across all asset classes. The portfolio manager notes that bonds, at today’s higher yields, offer more of a cushion in a balanced portfolio should the economy enter a downturn. The portfolio manager believes that a cautious approach to risk taking remains appropriate in this environment, and the asset mix is positioned with a small overweight in stocks and a slight underweight in fixed income given a view that stocks offer superior return potential over the longer term. The portfolio manager last altered the asset mix in 2022's fourth quarter by adding 0.5 percentage point to the equity allocation, sourced from bonds, as indicators suggested equities were attractively valued.

Effective January 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A units will be fixed at 1.68%.

Effective September 20, 2022, Brenda Eaton was appointed as Vice Chair of the Independent Review Committee (the "IRC") following the death of Paul K. Bates, who had served as a dedicated member of the IRC since December 2014. Effective December 31, 2022, Charles F. Macfarlane stepped down as a member of the IRC, and effective January 1, 2023, Suromitra Sanatani was appointed as Chair of the IRC.

Effective April 11, 2022, all Advisor Series units with a deferred sales charge option were re-designated as Series A units. Any redemption fees associated with such re-designations were waived by RBC GAM.

RBC GAM is paid a management fee by the Fund as compensation for its services. The Fund pays a fixed administration fee to RBC GAM, which, in turn, pays certain operating expenses of the Fund. Both the management fee and fixed administration fee are calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of units of the Fund. RBC GAM, as trustee, earns a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn fees and spreads in connection with various services provided to, or transactions with, the Fund, such as banking, brokerage, securities lending, foreign exchange and derivatives transactions. RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn a foreign exchange spread when unitholders switch between series of funds denominated in different currencies. The Fund also maintains bank accounts and overdraft provisions with Royal Bank for which Royal Bank may earn a fee. Registrars

Securities Lending Agent

To the extent the Fund may engage in securities lending transactions, RBC IS may act as the Fund's securities lending agent. Any revenue earned on such securities lending is split between the Fund and the securities lending agent.

¹ The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the direct expenses charged to the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of the expenses of underlying funds, if any, for the stated period, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. RBC GAM may, at its discretion and without notice to unitholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by RBC GAM of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by RBC GAM.

² The portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not applicable to money market funds.

Effective January 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A units will be fixed at 1.68%. If the changes to the management fees would have been in effect throughout the financial year ended December 31, 2022, the adjusted MER for each series of the Fund would be: Series A – 1.95%.

Management Fees and Administration Fees

Management fees and administration fees of each series of the Fund are payable to RBC GAM and calculated at the following annual percentages, before GST/HST, of the daily net asset value of each series of the Fund.

The management fee payable in respect of Series A units of the Fund is a variable fee and is determined on a basis such that all fees and expenses that comprise the management expense ratio ("MER"), other than the additional cost of the GST/HST, will be equal to a specified percentage of the average net asset value of this series of the Fund ("Specified Percentage"). The Specified Percentage includes the management fee, administration fee of 0.05%, taxes (other than the additional cost of the GST/HST), other fund costs and any fees and expenses of the underlying funds. The Specified Percentage for Series A units is 1.85%.

The management fee payable to RBC GAM in respect of Series F units of the Fund is a fixed fee and the MER of Series F units comprises the management fee, administration fee, taxes, other fund costs and any fees and expenses of the underlying funds.

The management fee, breakdown of services received in consideration of the management fee component of the MER, as a percentage of the management fee, and the administration fee for each series are as follows:

	Management Fees*†	Breakdown of Services		Administration Fees
		Distribution	Other‡
Series A	1.68%	44%	56%	0.05%
Series F	0.95%	—	100%	0.05%

* Management fees for Series A units represent the actual average management fee rate for the periods ended December 31, 2022 and 2021.

† Effective January 1, 2023, the management fees for Series A units will be fixed at 1.68%.

‡ Includes all costs related to management, trustee, investment advisory services, general administration and profit.

PAST PERFORMANCE

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the Fund and would be lower if distributions were not reinvested. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, optional charges or income taxes payable that would have reduced returns or performance. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund may perform in the future. A fund with more than 10 years of performance history is only permitted to disclose the past 10 years.

Year-by-Year Returns (%)

The bar chart indicates the Fund's performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year. The bar chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have grown or decreased by the end of the financial year.
