MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund is an asset allocation fund specifically designed to meet the changing needs of investors who are saving money for the purpose of funding their child's post-secondary education that commences around 2020. The Fund gradually shifts its asset mix from an emphasis on equity funds in its early years, to an emphasis on money market funds as its "target" year of 2020 approaches. The Fund invests its assets primarily in units of other funds managed by RBC GAM or an affiliate of RBC GAM (called the "underlying funds").

Over the life of the Fund, its portfolio will shift from a focus on funds with growth potential to a focus on funds that preserve capital.

Risk

The Fund has multiple risks associated with investing in various asset classes. These risks are similar to the risks of investing in the underlying funds. The Fund's goal is to decrease portfolio risk each year to reduce the risk of capital erosion as the target year nears. By 2020, any investments in stock and fixed-income funds will be shifted to money-market funds. The Fund is suitable for investors who plan to hold their investments for the short term and can tolerate low investment risk.

There were no significant changes to the investment objective and strategies that affected the Fund's overall level of risk during the reporting period. The risks of investing in the Fund and the suitability of the Fund for investors remain as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund's net asset value fell to $783 million as of December 31, 2019, from $850 million at the end of 2018. The decrease was due to net redemptions, partially offset by investment returns.

Over the past year, the Fund's Series A units gained 1.9%. The broad-based index 1 rose 6.9% and the broad-based index 2 rose 22.9%. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, while broad-based index returns do not include any costs of investing. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

Financial markets staged a solid recovery in 2019, rebounding from steep declines at the end of the previous year, as a number of key macroeconomic challenges faded and new tailwinds emerged. Economic growth may be bottoming after the U.S. Federal Reserve (the "Fed") lowered interest rates three times during the year and the risk of an all-out U.S.-China trade war appeared to recede as the year progressed. Other developments that attracted investors' attention included the timing of the U.K.'s exit from the European Union, anti-China demonstrations in Hong Kong and the impeachment of U.S. President Donald Trump.

Bonds posted solid gains during the period, with sovereign bonds in developed markets returning about 5% to 8%. Monetary easing occurred globally, with central banks in the U.S., the eurozone, Japan and China lowering rates and/or restarting quantitative easing. The U.S. was the best-performing developed fixed-income market when hedged to Canadian dollars, followed by Canada, Germany and Japan. Emerging-market fixed income outperformed developed markets given that Fed rate cuts made the yields offered by emerging-market bonds more attractive to investors and decreased financing risks linked to higher relative U.S. interest rates. Returns in the fixed-income segment of the portfolio were boosted by the RBC Canadian Short-Term Income Fund and the RBC Global Bond Fund.

Equities delivered impressive gains in 2019 in an environment of stable inflation, moderate economic growth and accommodative monetary policy. Earnings growth stalled during the year, but the rebound in stocks would suggest that profit growth will re-accelerate in 2020. The S&P 500 Index, the U.S. stock benchmark, rallied 31% in 2019 to post one of its largest gains on record, beating other developed equity markets. Emerging-market stocks underperformed developed markets given that the U.S.-China trade conflict was viewed as generally more negative for emerging economies. Returns were held back by the RBC European Equity Fund and the RBC U.S. Mid-Cap Growth Equity Fund.

Recent Developments

After nearly two years of decline, leading economic indicators have stabilized and/or turned higher in most major regions and, with progress being made on U.S.-China trade and Brexit, the portfolio manager believes that the macroeconomic risks are less severe than they were at various points in 2019. The improvement in global indicators has prompted the portfolio manager to take a more favourable view of equities.

Bond yields appear to have bottomed in the summer, but the portfolio manager does not believe that their recent increase marks the start of a significant near-term rise. Given the starting point of extraordinarily low yields and the fact that they are likely to move higher over time, investors can expect low sovereign-bond returns for the foreseeable future.

On or about June 26, 2020, RBC Target 2020 Education Fund will have reached its maturity date and RBC GAM Inc. will terminate it accordingly. All outstanding units of RBC Target 2020 Education Fund will be cancelled on the maturity date and unitholders will receive units of RBC Canadian Money Market Fund in exchange.

Effective January 1, 2020, the specified percentages for Series A units will be reduced to 0.50% from 1.00%; and for Series D units will be reduced to 0.50% from 0.80%. Effective January 1, 2020, the management fees for Series F units will be reduced to 0.35% from 0.65%.

Effective December 1, 2019, Ms. Mary C. Ritchie retired as a member of the Independent Review Committee (the "IRC"). Effective January 1, 2020, Ms. Ruth Corbin was appointed as a member of the IRC.

Effective June 27, 2019, the Fund's risk rating changed from low-to-medium to low.

RBC GAM is paid a management fee by the Fund as compensation for its services. The Fund pays a fixed administration fee to RBC GAM, which, in turn, pays certain operating expenses of the Fund. Both the management fee and fixed administration fee are calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of units of the Fund. RBC GAM, as trustee, earns a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn fees and spreads in connection with various services provided to, or transactions with, the Fund, such as banking, brokerage, securities lending, foreign exchange and derivatives transactions. RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn a foreign exchange spread when unitholders switch between series of funds denominated in different currencies. The Fund also maintains bank accounts and overdraft provisions with Royal Bank for which Royal Bank may earn a fee. Registrars RBC GAM, RBC Investor Services Trust ("RBC IS") or Royal Bank (or a combination thereof) are the registrars of the Fund and keep records of who owns units of the Fund. The registrars earn a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Securities Lending Agent

To the extent the Fund may engage in securities lending transactions, RBC IS may act as the Fund's securities lending agent. Any revenue earned on such securities lending is split between the Fund and the securities lending agent.

Related-Party Trading Activities

- (a) trades in securities of Royal Bank;

RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Related-Party Trading Activities (i) is made free from any influence of Royal Bank or its associates or affiliates and without taking into account any consideration relevant to Royal Bank or its affiliates or associates, (ii) represents the business judgment of the portfolio manager, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund, (iii) is in compliance with RBC GAM policies and procedures, and (iv) achieves a fair and reasonable result for the Fund. ¹ The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the direct expenses charged to the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of the expenses of underlying funds, if any, for the stated period, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. RBC GAM may, at its discretion and without notice to unitholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by RBC GAM of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by RBC GAM.

² The Fund's portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not applicable to money market funds.

⁴ From July 4, 2016.

Effective January 1, 2018, the Specified Percentage for Series A units was reduced to 1.00% from 1.55%; and for Series D units was reduced to 0.80% from 0.90%; and management fees for Series F units were reduced to 0.65% from 0.70%.

Management Fees

RBC GAM is the manager, trustee and portfolio manager of the Fund. Management fees of each series of the Fund are calculated at the annual percentages, before GST/HST, of the daily net asset value of each series of the Fund.

The management fee payable in respect of each of Series A and Series D units of the Fund is a variable fee and is determined on a basis such that all fees and expenses that comprise the management expense ratio ("MER"), other than the additional cost of the GST/HST, will be equal to a specified percentage of the average net asset value of each of these series of the Fund ("Specified Percentage"). The Specified Percentage includes the management fee, administration fee, taxes (other than the additional cost of the GST/HST), other fund costs and any fees and expenses of the underlying funds. The Specified Percentage for Series A units is 1.00% and Series D units is 0.80%.

The management fee payable to RBC GAM in respect of Series F units of the Fund is a fixed fee and the MER of Series F units comprises the management fee, administration fee, taxes, other fund costs and any fees and expenses of the underlying funds.

The breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fee component of the MER for each series, as a percentage of the management fees, is as follows:

	Management Fees*	Breakdown of Services
		Distribution	Other [†]
Series A	0.88%	28%	72%
Series D	0.69%	22%	78%
Series F	0.65%	—	100%

* Management fees for Series A and Series D units represent the actual average management fee rate for the periods ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

[†] Includes all costs related to management, trustee, investment advisory services, general administration and profit.

PAST PERFORMANCE

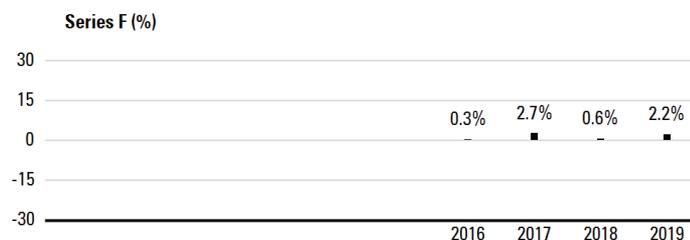

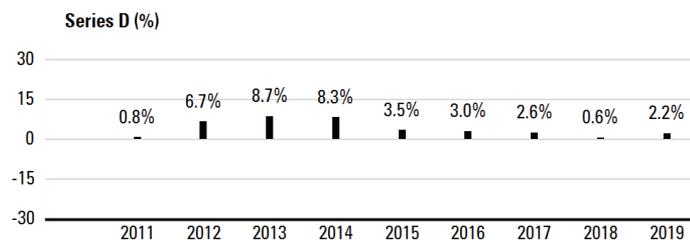

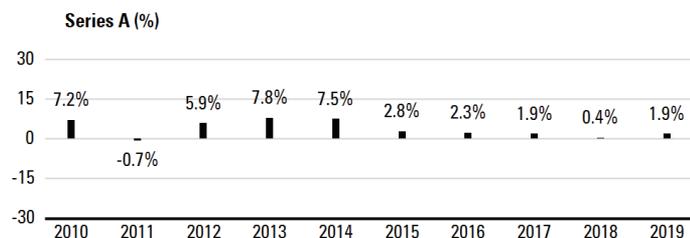

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the Fund and would be lower if distributions were not reinvested. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, optional charges or income taxes payable that would have reduced returns or performance. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund may perform in the future. A fund with more than 10 years of performance history is only permitted to disclose the past 10 years.
