MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks to provide long-term capital growth by investing in equity securities of companies located in or having a principal business interest in Asian markets such as Japan, Hong Kong, Taiwan, South Korea, Singapore, China and Australia, either directly or indirectly through investment in other funds managed by RBC GAM or an affiliate of RBC GAM (called the “underlying funds”).

To achieve its investment objective, the Fund selects underlying funds from the RBC Funds family or PH&N Funds family, including the RBC Asia Pacific ex-Japan Equity Fund and the RBC Japanese Equity Fund, that focus on Asian sectors and themes and diversify their holdings across the region to reduce risk.

Results of Operations

The Fund’s net asset value was $94 million as of June 30, 2024.

Over the past six months, the Fund’s Series F units gained 15.2%. The Fund’s return is after the deduction of fees and expenses. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

Asian equities registered gains in the first half of 2024, driven by strong returns in Taiwan, Japan, India, South Korea and China. South Korea and Taiwan benefited from demand for hardware used in the development of artificial intelligence. India gained on solid economic growth, relatively benign inflation, a pro-business government and ample bank credit. China outperformed as economic indicators showed some improvement.

Japanese stocks posted gains in local-currency terms, as the global economic backdrop remained positive. Equities were bolstered by a decline in the yen that sent the currency to its lowest levels in almost 40 years. The central bank’s almost-two-decade commitment to fight chronic deflation through negative interest rates came to an end in March, when the Bank of Japan (the “BOJ”) raised its benchmark interest rate for the first time since 2007. As part of the decision, the BOJ raised the short-term rate to between zero and 0.1% from minus 0.1%. The yen’s persistent weakness was tied in part to investor skepticism that interest rates will rise much more.

Both of the Fund’s holdings had a positive impact on the portfolio’s returns, with the RBC Asia Pacific ex-Japan Equity Fund having a larger positive effect on returns than the RBC Japanese Equity Fund.

Recent Developments

Asia’s economic growth remains solid given stable domestic economies and healthy exports, particularly of semiconductors. As a result, labour markets are generally characterized by job gains and steady inflation-adjusted income growth. India, Indonesia and the Philippines are forecast to be the fastest-growing economies in the region in 2024, and China’s outlook has improved slightly as the government supports the property market. In Australia, consumption is expected to pick up in the second half of 2024 given a strengthening labour market.

The Japanese currency remains weak given that nominal U.S. interest rates are much higher than they are in Japan. Improvements in Japanese corporate governance and a focus on improving shareholder returns continue, as many companies make strides in prioritizing investments based on a search for the best returns and disposing of low-return businesses.

Related-Party Transactions

Manager, Trustee and Portfolio Manager

RBC GAM is an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Royal Bank of Canada (“Royal Bank”) and is the manager, trustee and portfolio manager of the Fund. RBC GAM is responsible for the Fund’s day-to-day operations, holds title to the Fund’s property on behalf of its unitholders, provides investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund and appoints distributors for the Fund. Both the management fee and fixed administration fee are calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of units of the Fund. RBC GAM, as trustee, earns a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn fees and spreads in connection with various services provided to, or transactions with, the Fund, such as banking, brokerage, securities lending, foreign exchange and derivatives transactions. RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn a foreign exchange spread when unitholders switch between series of funds denominated in different currencies. The Fund also maintains bank accounts and overdraft provisions with Royal Bank for which Royal Bank may earn a fee. Affiliates of RBC GAM that provide services to the Fund in the course of their normal businesses are discussed below.

¹ The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the direct expenses charged to the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of the expenses of underlying funds, if any, for the stated period, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. RBC GAM may, at its discretion and without notice to unitholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by RBC GAM of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by RBC GAM.

² The Fund's portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not applicable to money market funds.

³ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs of the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of such costs of underlying funds expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The trading expense ratio is not applicable to fixed-income transactions.

Management Fees and Administration Fees

Management fees and administration fees of each series of the Fund are payable to RBC GAM and calculated at the following annual percentages, before GST/HST, of the daily net asset value of each series of the Fund. The management fee, breakdown of services received in consideration of the management fee, as a percentage of the management fee, and the administration fee for each series are as follows:

	Management Fees	Breakdown of Services		Administration Fees
		Distribution	Other*
Series A	1.75%	57%	43%	0.05%
Series D	1.00%	25%	75%	0.05%
Series F	0.75%	—	100%	0.05%
Series O	n/a	n/a	n/a	0.02%

Series O – no management fees are paid by the Fund with respect to Series O units. Series O unitholders pay a negotiated fee directly to RBC GAM for investment-counselling services.

* Includes all costs related to management, trustee, investment advisory services, general administration and profit.

PAST PERFORMANCE

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the Fund and would be lower if distributions were not reinvested. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, optional charges or income taxes payable that would have reduced returns or performance. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund may perform in the future. A fund with more than 10 years of performance history is only permitted to disclose the past 10 years.

Year-by-Year Returns (%)

The bar chart indicates the Fund's performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year. The bar chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have grown or decreased by the end of the financial year or interim period.

Inception dates are not provided for series that have been in existence for more than 10 years.

Advisor Series units with a deferred sales charge option were re-designated as Series A units effective April 11, 2022.

For the 12-month periods ended December 31 and the six-month period ended June 30, 2024.
