MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund aims to provide long-term capital growth by investing in stocks of companies outside North America, providing exposure to economies that may be at different stages of the business cycle or offer growth opportunities unavailable in U.S. and Canadian markets. The Fund focuses on companies that are primarily in Europe, Australasia and the Far East.

Results of Operations

The Fund's net asset value was $1.5 billion as of June 30, 2022.

Over the past six months, the Fund's Series A units lost 23.3%. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

Equities in the developed regions of Europe and Asia recorded significant declines during the first half of 2022, as the highest inflation in four decades and Russia's invasion of Ukraine called into question the sustainability of global economic growth. Central banks in major markets came under increasing scrutiny on concern that they were too complacent on combatting inflation.

Stocks began plunging in early 2022 after it became clear that central banks including the Bank of England (the "BOE") and the U.S. Federal Reserve would have no choice but to begin boosting rates, and in some cases quickly. The BOE raised interest rates four times in the first half of the year, while the European Central Bank (the "ECB") held off to account for the varying economic conditions present in the 19 countries that use the euro. Japanese stocks were held back by the impact of the Russia-Ukraine war, the weakest Chinese economic growth in about 20 years and swiftly rising U.S. interest rates. The surge in U.S. rates led to a depreciation in the Japanese currency, which made Japanese exports less expensive and somewhat offset the weak-growth environment.

At the sector level, Energy was the top-performing sector in the Fund during the first half of 2022, while Information Technology was the worst-performing sector. The stocks that contributed the most to relative returns were Orrön Energy, followed by Budweiser Brewing and AIA Group. The Fund's worst-performing stocks were Ashtead Group, Barratt Developments and ASML Holding.

Recent Developments

European equities have held up comparatively well in 2022, but investors must contend with a number of risks over the remainder of the year. The main concern for investors appears to be whether central banks are equipped to tackle high levels of inflation without sending the economy into recession, which would likely have a negative impact on equity markets. The war in Ukraine and global supply-chain issues cannot be ignored. The sub-advisor expects Japanese economic growth to stabilize in the second half of 2022 as the pandemic recedes and unemployment stays under 3%. However, prolonged supply-chain constraints could hold back economic activity. Elevated international commodity prices will make inflation, excluding food and energy, exceed the 2% threshold, at least temporarily.

Effective April 11, 2022, all Advisor Series units with a deferred sales charge option were re-designated as Series A units. Any redemption fees associated with such re-designations were waived by RBC GAM.

Effective April 8, 2022, the RBC International Equity Class was merged into the Fund and shareholders of the RBC International Equity Class received units of the Fund on a tax-deferred basis.

Related-Party Transactions

Manager, Trustee and Portfolio Manager

RBC GAM is an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Royal Bank of Canada ("Royal Bank") and is the manager, trustee and portfolio manager of the Fund. RBC GAM is responsible for the Fund's day-to-day operations, holds title to the Fund's property on behalf of its unitholders, provides investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund and appoints distributors for the Fund. RBC GAM is paid a management fee by the Fund as compensation for its services. The Fund pays a fixed administration fee to RBC GAM, which, in turn, pays certain operating expenses of the Fund. Both the management fee and fixed administration fee are calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of units of the Fund. RBC GAM, as trustee, earns a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn fees and spreads in connection with various services provided to, or transactions with, the Fund, such as banking, brokerage, securities lending, foreign exchange and derivatives transactions. RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn a foreign exchange spread when unitholders switch between series of funds denominated in different currencies. The Fund also maintains bank accounts and overdraft provisions with Royal Bank for which Royal Bank may earn a fee. Affiliates of RBC GAM that provide services to the Fund in the course of their normal businesses are discussed below.

Sub-Advisors

RBC Global Asset Management (UK) Limited and RBC Global Asset Management (Asia) Limited are the sub-advisors and provide investment advice for the Fund. The sub-advisors earn a fee which is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of units of the Fund. The sub-advisors are paid by the manager from the management fee paid by the Fund.

Distributors

RBC GAM, Royal Mutual Funds Inc., RBC Direct Investing Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc. and Phillips, Hager & North Investment Funds Ltd. are principal distributors of, or may distribute certain series of units of, the Fund. Dealers may receive an ongoing commission based on the total value of their clients' investment in certain series of units of the Fund.

Registrars

RBC GAM, RBC Investor Services Trust ("RBC IS") or Royal Bank (or a combination thereof) are the registrars of the Fund and keep records of who owns units of the Fund. The registrars earn a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Custodian

RBC IS is the custodian and holds the assets of the Fund. RBC IS earns a fee as the custodian, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

To the extent the Fund may engage in securities lending transactions, RBC IS may act as the Fund's securities lending agent. Any revenue earned on such securities lending is split between the Fund and the securities lending agent.

Other Related-Party Transactions

Pursuant to applicable securities legislation, the Fund relied on the standing instructions from the Independent Review Committee with respect to one or more of the following transactions:

Related-Party Trading Activities

- (a) trades in securities of Royal Bank;

The applicable standing instructions require that Related-Party Trading Activities and Inter-Fund Trading be conducted in accordance with RBC GAM policy and that RBC GAM advise the Independent Review Committee of a material breach of any standing instruction. RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Related-Party Trading Activities (i) is made free from any influence of Royal Bank or its associates or affiliates and without taking into account any consideration relevant to Royal Bank or its affiliates or associates, (ii) represents the business judgment of the portfolio manager, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund, (iii) is in compliance with RBC GAM policies and procedures, and (iv) achieves a fair and reasonable result for the Fund. RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Inter-Fund Trading is in the best interests of each Fund.

¹ The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the direct expenses charged to the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of the expenses of underlying funds, if any, for the stated period, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. RBC GAM may, at its discretion and without notice to unitholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by RBC GAM of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by RBC GAM.

² The Fund's portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not applicable to money market funds.

³ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs of the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of such costs of underlying funds expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The trading expense ratio is not applicable to fixed-income transactions.

⁴ From February 27, 2017.

Effective March 1, 2020, the administration fees for Series A units were reduced to 0.15% from 0.20%. If the changes to the administration fees would have been in effect throughout the financial year ended December 31, 2020, the adjusted MER for each series of the Fund would be: Series A – 2.10%.

Management Fees and Administration Fees

Management fees and administration fees of each series of the Fund are payable to RBC GAM and calculated at the following annual percentages, before GST/HST, of the daily net asset value of each series of the Fund. The management fee, breakdown of services received in consideration of the management fee, as a percentage of the management fee, and the administration fee for each series are as follows:

	Management Fees	Breakdown of Services		Administration Fees
		Distribution	Other*
Series A	1.75%	57%	43%	0.15%
Series T5	1.75%	57%	43%	0.15%

PAST PERFORMANCE

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the Fund and would be lower if distributions were not reinvested. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund may perform in the future. A fund with more than 10 years of performance history is only permitted to disclose the past 10 years.
