MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks to provide a combination of capital growth and modest income by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of equity and fixed-income securities from anywhere around the world either directly or indirectly through investment in other funds managed by RBC GAM or an affiliate of RBC GAM (called the “underlying funds”). The Fund may also invest in emerging market equity securities, emerging market currencies and emerging market government and corporate bonds.

The Fund’s target weightings for each asset class are 40% for fixed income and 60% for equities. The target weightings for each class may be adjusted based on changes in the market outlook for each asset class. The actual allocation to each class will be no more than 15% above or below its target weighting.

Results of Operations

The Fund’s net asset value was $593 million as of June 30, 2021.

Over the past six months, the Fund’s Series A units gained 3.9%. The Fund’s return is after the deduction of fees and expenses. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

A year into the pandemic, there was a sense that better times lay ahead as the first half of 2021 came to a close. By June, COVID-19 vaccines had reached at least half the population in many developed countries, notably the U.S. and the U.K., and were increasingly gaining traction in other nations, bolstering economic growth. The optimism was reflected in rising prices for commodities such as oil, copper and lumber and prompted concerns that inflation would accelerate. As a result, the U.S. Federal Reserve (the “Fed”) and the Bank of Canada (the “BOC”) began to contemplate the potential need to tighten monetary policy.

The Fund’s overweight position in equities and underweight position in fixed income had a negative impact on performance. Government-bond yields rose in most major developed markets during the period, leading to declines in major fixed-income indexes. Bond yields climbed as the global economy started to emerge from pandemic lockdowns accompanied by the concerns about rising inflation. As a result, some central banks began to pare asset-purchase programs aimed at holding down interest rates. Government of Canada bonds delivered their worst first-half return since 1994, underperforming their U.S. counterparts, and the domestic 10-year federal bond was the second-worst performer among major markets. The strong rebound in the Canadian economy prompted the BOC to further reduce its pace of bond buying. Meanwhile, the Fed signalled in June that a reduction in its own bond purchases would be forthcoming. Returns in the fixed-income segment of the portfolio were held back by the RBC Global Bond Fund and the RBC Global Corporate Bond Fund.

Global equities continued their gains during the period, with most major indexes reaching record levels. The moves extended the portfolio manager’s model of global equity-market valuations to its highest level since before the 2008/2009 financial crisis. Canadian stocks outperformed U.S. and global equity indexes given that a significant portion of the domestic market is made up of companies that produce commodities. Emerging-market equities lagged given the prevalence of large, poorly performing Chinese technology stocks in the emerging-market index and the difficulty that many emerging markets had obtaining COVID-19 vaccines. Returns were bolstered by the RBC Global Dividend Growth Fund and the RBC Global Equity Focus Fund.

Recent Developments

As containment of COVID-19 improves and economies gradually reopen, considerable pent-up consumer and business demand is being released, and permanent scarring from the pandemic so far appears to be limited. Strong growth, surging corporate profits and investor confidence have helped to extend the bull market and boost global equities to record highs. The S&P 500 Index may currently appear expensive, but it could grow into these elevated valuations fairly quickly as a strengthening economy lifts revenues and earnings. Even so, return potential improves outside North America to regions such as Europe, Japan and emerging markets, all of which offer more attractive valuations.

The portfolio manager’s models indicate that the acute valuation risk evident in the sovereign-bond market immediately following the pandemic’s declaration was greatly alleviated by the rapid rise in yields over the past year. In the shorter term, the portfolio manager expects the yield on the 10-year U.S. government bond to peak near 1.75% and, as a result, sees low returns for sovereign bonds. In this environment, the portfolio manager believes an overweight in equities is appropriate. That said, the portfolio manager recognizes that U.S. equity valuations are now full and therefore trimmed the equity overweight position by 0.50 percentage point from last quarter, sourced entirely from U.S. equities.

Effective February 28, 2021, Ms. Catherine J. Kloefer resigned as Vice Chair of the Independent Review Committee (the “IRC”). Effective March 22, 2021, Mr. Paul K. Bates was appointed as Vice Chair of the IRC. Effective April 1, 2021, Ms. Brenda Eaton was appointed as a member of the IRC.

Related-Party Transactions

RBC GAM is responsible for the Fund's day-to-day operations, holds title to the Fund's property on behalf of its unitholders, provides investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund and appoints distributors for the Fund. RBC GAM is paid a management fee by the Fund as compensation for its services. The Fund pays a fixed administration fee to RBC GAM, which, in turn, pays certain operating expenses of the Fund. Both the management fee and fixed administration fee are calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of the net asset value of each series of units of the Fund. RBC GAM, as trustee, earns a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn fees and spreads in connection with various services provided to, or transactions with, the Fund, such as banking, brokerage, securities lending, foreign exchange and derivatives transactions. RBC GAM or its affiliates may earn a foreign exchange spread when unitholders switch between series of funds denominated in different currencies. The Fund also maintains bank accounts and overdraft provisions with Royal Bank for which Royal Bank may earn a fee. Affiliates of RBC GAM that provide services to the Fund in the course of their normal businesses are discussed below.

Distributors

RBC GAM, Royal Mutual Funds Inc., RBC Direct Investing Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc. and Phillips, Hager & North Investment Funds Ltd. are principal distributors of, or may distribute certain series of units of, the Fund. Registrars

RBC GAM, RBC Investor Services Trust ("RBC IS") or Royal Bank (or a combination thereof) are the registrars of the Fund and keep records of who owns units of the Fund. The registrars earn a fee, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Custodian

RBC IS is the custodian and holds the assets of the Fund. RBC IS earns a fee as the custodian, which is paid by the manager from the fixed administration fee paid by the Fund.

Securities Lending Agent

To the extent the Fund may engage in securities lending transactions, RBC IS may act as the Fund's securities lending agent. Any revenue earned on such securities lending is split between the Fund and the securities lending agent.

Pursuant to applicable securities legislation, the Fund relied on the standing instructions from the Independent Review Committee with respect to one or more of the following transactions:

Related-Party Trading Activities

- (a) trades in securities of Royal Bank;

RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Related-Party Trading Activities (i) is made free from any influence of Royal Bank or its associates or affiliates and without taking into account any consideration relevant to Royal Bank or its affiliates or associates, (ii) represents the business judgment of the portfolio manager, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund, (iii) is in compliance with RBC GAM policies and procedures, and (iv) achieves a fair and reasonable result for the Fund. RBC GAM policy requires that an investment decision in respect of Inter-Fund Trading is in the best interests of each Fund.

¹ The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the direct expenses charged to the Fund and the Fund's proportionate share of the expenses of underlying funds, if any, for the stated period, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. RBC GAM may, at its discretion and without notice to unitholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by RBC GAM of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by RBC GAM.

² The Fund's portfolio turnover rate gives an indication of the level of activity employed by the portfolio manager. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not applicable to money market funds.

³ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The trading expense ratio is not applicable to fixed-income transactions.

⁴ From January 11, 2016.
